

The Danube Loft

Property no. 2694

LOCATION

In a prime downtown location, directly at Börseplatz, the former K.K. Telegraph Center has undergone comprehensive revitalization. The historic building, constructed in 1873, served as the headquarters of the Austrian Postal and Telecommunications Service until the mid-1990s.

LAYOUT & AMENITIES

"The Danube Loft" features a spacious living kitchen of approximately 126 m², 3 bedrooms, 3 en-suite bathrooms, a gallery, a wardrobe, an entrance hall, and a storage room, with a total size of around 311 m².

Further assets of this ambitious construction project include the in-house underground parking, high-quality fittings, and a concierge service. A garage space can be purchased for €90,000 or a duplex for €70,000, depending on availability.

The project also features:

- a bicycle and stroller storage room
- a cellar compartment for each unit
- package lockers
- a tasting room/wine cellar
- a children's playroom
- a dedicated, wheelchair-accessible entrance

INFRASTRUCTURE

An excellent infrastructure with very good transport connections and access to public transport rounds off this offer. The city center is within walking distance. The Schottentor subway station (line U2) and the tram stations for lines 1, D, 71, 37, and more are 280 meters away.

INFORMATION
